

Lehh Homestay

The Soul of Ladakh

Duration - 7 Nights & 8 Days

Route: Leh → Nubra Valley → Turtuk → Pangong Lake → Leh

A perfectly paced Himalayan journey. Curated by locals to ensure perfect acclimatization, legendary views, and plenty of time to shop and explore.

Day 1: The Art of Doing Nothing (Acclimatization in Leh)

The Local Way: Your journey begins the moment you land in Leh. We will personally pick you up from Leh Airport and bring you to Julley Ladakh Homestay, where a warm welcome awaits with traditional butter tea (Gur-Gur Chai).

Today is all about slowing down. No rushing, no sightseeing pressure. We spend the day relaxing, chatting in our traditional kitchen, and allowing your body to gently adapt to the 3,500-meter altitude.

- The Local Way: No rushing today. We welcome you to Julley Ladakh Homestay with warm cups of butter tea. We spend the day relaxing and letting your body adapt to the altitude.
- Evening: We will take a very slow, gentle walk up to the magnificent Shanti Stupa to watch the sunset over Leh town, followed by a quiet stroll through the Leh Main Market.
- Stay: Julley Ladakh Homestay, Leh.

Day 2: Secrets of the Sham Valley

- The Local Way: After a home-cooked Ladakhi breakfast, we take a light day trip to help you adjust further. We visit the Hall of Fame, witness the optical illusion at Magnetic Hill, and sit peacefully at the Sangam (where the Zaskar and Indus rivers meet).
- Evening: Back to the homestay to help the family prep dinner!
  - Stay: Julley Ladakh Homestay, Leh.

Day 3: Over Khardung La to Nubra Valley

- The Local Way: Today we leave early to drive up over the famous Khardung La pass (one of the highest motorable passes in the world) and descend into the breathtaking Nubra Valley.
  - Stay: Cozy local guesthouse/homestay in Nubra.

Day 4: Journey to Turtuk (The Last Village)

- The Local Way: We drive to Turtuk, a village opened to tourists only in 2010. It is culturally Balti rather than Ladakhi. Walk through lush apricot orchards, see unique stone houses, and peek at the border mountains.
- Evening: Return to your stay in Nubra for a quiet night.
  - Stay: Cozy local guesthouse/homestay in Nubra.

Day 5: Nubra Valley to Pangong Tso

- The Local Way: We follow the carving path of the Shyok River directly to the famous blue waters of Pangong Lake. We avoid the loud, crowded commercial camps and arrange for you to stay in the quiet, authentic village of Maan or Merak right on the edge of the lake.
  - Stay: Authentic lakeside homestay at Pangong.

Day 6: Sunrise at the Lake & Thiksey Monastery on the way back to Leh

- The Local Way: Wake up early to see the incredible morning colors over Pangong Lake. After a warm breakfast, we make our way back to Leh via the massive Chang La pass.
- The Highlight: Before reaching Leh, we will stop at the stunning Thiksey Monastery (the spectacular 12-story complex that looks like Tibet's Potala Palace) to see the giant 49-foot Maitreya Buddha statue.
  - Stay: Julley Ladakh Homestay, Leh.

Day 7: Old Leh, Shopping & Hidden Gems

- The Local Way: Today is all about soaking in the local atmosphere. We will do a short sightseeing trip to the historic Leh Palace and the serene Sankar Gompa.
- Afternoon/Evening: The rest of the day is yours for shopping! We will show you where to get authentic prayer flags, hand-woven Pashmina, local dried apricots, and silver jewelry at the Leh Main Market without tourist markups.
  - Stay: Julley Ladakh Homestay, Leh.

Day 8: Julley & Farewell

- Enjoy a final breakfast with our family before we drop you off at the airport with traditional white silk scarves (Khatags).
